

SIGN UP FOR COMMUNITY SUPPORTED AGRICULTURE DELIVERY

By reducing the distance that our food has to travel to get onto our plates, we can reduce greenhouse gases. One great way to buy meat and produce that is grown locally is to subscribe to a local CSA farm operation. And by buying from a CSA, you save a lot of the plastic packaging that grocery store items come in. Several CSAs serve the Winnetka area. Find out more at:

<https://www.nal.usda.gov/afsic/community-supported-agriculture>.